

This is the Scandense desktop. Note how easy it is to tell at a glance which processors or printers are In Control (green), Out of Action (yellow) or Out of Control (red)! The Control (dial) on the desktop shows the overall status – The worst parameter needle, the worst color balance and the worst process control status.